
PUBLIC LAW RESEARCH IN WALES

PUBLIC LAW RESEARCH AREAS

- Constitutional law & devolution, Brexit & Covid-19
 - Tom Hannant, ‘Justifying a (Welsh) Legal Jurisdiction’ [2019] Public Law 665
 - Robert Jones and Richard Wyn Jones, ‘Justice at the Jagged Edge in Wales’ (Wales Governance Centre 2019)
 - Emyr Lewis and Ryszard Piotrowicz, ‘Reasonableness the Welsh Way’ (Aberystwyth – WGC Blog/Centre on Constitutional Change)
 - The Administrative Court & judicial review in Wales
 - David Gardner, ‘Administrative Law and the Administrative Court for – or in – Wales’ (in Executive Decision-making and the Courts – Hart Publishing 2021)
 - Keith Bush and Huw Pritchard, ‘Implications of the Independent Review of Administrative Law for Devolved Government in Wales’ UK Constitutional Law Association 2020) an excerpt from Public Law Wales’ submission to IRAL
-

PUBLIC LAW RESEARCH AREAS

- General public administrative law in Wales
 - Sarah Nason, ‘The “New Administrative law” of Wales [2019] Public Law 703
 - David Gardner, ‘An Administrative Law Code for Wales: Benefits to Reap and Obstacles to Overcome’ (2019) 40 (3) Statute Law Review 273
 - Specific areas of public law
 - Richard Owen, ‘Sustainability and the University Law Clinic’ (2020) 27(3) International Journal of Clinical Legal Education 77
 - John Harrington, Erin Thomas and Barbara Hughes-Moore: ‘Is there a Welsh Health Law? Values, Divergence and Devolution after COVID-19’ UK Constitutional Law Association Blog January 2021
-

PUBLIC LAW RESEARCH AREAS

- Administrative Justice

- Nason, Sherlock, Pritchard and Taylor, 'Public Administration and a Just Wales' (Nuffield Foundation 2020)

- Devolved Tribunals in Wales

- Sarah Nason and Huw Pritchard, 'Administrative justice and the legacy of executive devolution: establishing a tribunals system for Wales' (2020) 26(4) Australian Journal of Administrative Law 233.

- Equality, Human Rights & Well-being

THE PUBLIC LAW OF WALES SERIES

